About the IPA

The Organisation

Founded in 1957, the Institute of Public Administration (IPA) is a leading provider of education, professional development and advisory services for the public sector in Ireland. Its objective is to advance the understanding, standard and practice of public administration and public policy. The IPA is a recognised college of the National University of Ireland.

What we do

The Institute of Public Administration (IPA) is Ireland's only public service development agency focused exclusively on public sector development. It delivers its service through:

- Education and Professional Development: building people's capability to meet current and future challenges.
- Advisory and Consultancy: solving problems and helping plan and shape the future.

We are proud of our distinct mission and role in the provision of Education, Professional Development, Consultancy and other services for the wider public sector both in Ireland and abroad.

Our blend of experience, skills and knowledge of the public sector allows us to offer a wide range of bespoke services which meet our clients' needs precisely and effectively and whilst our services are delivered mainly to clients in the Irish public service, we have a strong reputation and demand for our services internationally also.

Find out more about the IPA at: www.ipa.ie.

Why consider a role in the IPA

If you are looking for a career where you can make a real difference, with the potential for enormous personal satisfaction, then we urge you to consider a role with the Institute of Public Administration. If you are working in a governance-related post, you enjoy variety within your role, you get satisfaction from your client's successes and you want to be part of a strategy for developing better public services, then we would love to hear from you.

We make a difference, and we are proud of what we do. The Institute is involved in every part of the public service and our role is exciting and varied. If you're ready to join us, to be challenged, and to grow professionally, then consider a role with the Institute of Public Administration.

Job Description

Assistant Librarian

Grade 4

Reports to Head of Library & Information Services

Context

This is a newly created role to develop a Digital Knowledge Exchange for the IPA. The IPA Digital Knowledge Exchange will be a searchable, open access digital repository that hosts copies of all research conducted by IPA faculty and post graduate level students, IPA publications and IPA Case Studies, making it accessible via the library services.

The repository will serve as a structured, permanent, and searchable archive for IPA affiliated research. It will be integrated into the IPA Library online services and openly accessible to public servants, policymakers, researchers, students, and the wider public.

Job Function

The Assistant Librarian (Systems & Electronic Resources) is responsible for managing and optimising the library's core digital systems and platforms, ensuring seamless access to resources and supporting high-quality digital services for students, staff, and researchers.

The Assistant Librarian will lead and support the implementation, configuration, and ongoing management of the IPA Digital Knowledge Exchange, a new digital repository. This includes responsibility for technical setup, metadata standards, workflows, data quality, integrations with existing IPA systems, and end-user support.

The postholder will work closely with library colleagues, ICT and academic staff to ensure that the repository supports open access, research visibility, compliance, and long-term digital preservation.

The role also requires working with library colleagues in providing a library reference desk service to all IPA staff, students and researchers.

HOURS: 35 hours per week, including some evenings and Saturdays in accordance with Library rota requirements during the academic semester.

Main Responsibilities:

IPA Digital Knowledge Exchange Project

- Lead the technical implementation and configuration of the institutional repository.
- Develop ingestion workflows, metadata application, quality control processes, and documentation.
- Ensure the repository supports key scholarly communications functions including open access and research impact.
- Manage integrations with other institutional systems such as:

- Koha LMS
- Identity management systems (e.g. Ezproxy, SSO, SAML)
- Library Resource Discovery Tools
- ORCID, DOI/DataCite services
- Provide training and support for staff and researchers submitting materials.
- Ensure long-term sustainability through monitoring, upgrades, backups, and digital preservation practices.
- Collaborate with IT and external vendors on infrastructure, hosting, and technical support.
- Monitor repository analytics, generate reports, and contribute to research visibility initiatives.

Library Systems

- Administer, configure, and maintain the Koha LMS, including modules for cataloguing, circulation, acquisitions, serials and analytics.
- Manage the EBSCO Discovery Service, ensuring intuitive access, search optimization, and integration with all electronic resources.
- Manage electronic resource access including authentication, proxy configuration, link resolver maintenance, troubleshooting access issues, and coordinating with vendors.
- Support system integrations across the digital library environment (e.g. APIs, Z39.50, OAIPMH, KBART, SUSHI).
- Support system upgrades, migrations, testing, and quality assurance processes.
- Serve as the primary technical liaison between the library, IT services, vendors, and consortia.
- Ensure systems adhere to accessibility standards (e.g., WCAG) and data protection requirements (e.g. GDPR).
- Develop and maintain technical documentation, system configuration records, troubleshooting guides, and staff training materials.

General

- To deal with user queries either in person at the Library Inquiry Desk or by phone, e-mail and webchat as part of the library reference desk service rota.
- Provide day-to-day technical support for library staff and users.
- Contribute to digital strategy development, service improvement initiatives, and library modernisation projects.
- Participate in cross-library teams, working groups, and committees.
- Support staff training and capability-building in digital tools and systems.
- Assist with data quality projects, metadata enhancement, and workflow optimisation.
- Deliver excellent customer service and maintain professional relationships across the organisation.
- To provide information services to library users – including research support, literature searching, referencing, academic integrity etc.
- To promote the use of the Library.
- Undertake other duties as required to support the mission and strategic goals of the library.

- A non-EEA citizen who is a spouse or child of an EEA or Swiss citizen and has a stamp 4 visa; or
- A person awarded international protection under the International Protection Act 2015 or any family member entitled to remain in the State as a result of family reunification and has a stamp 4 visa; or
- A non-EEA citizen who is a parent of a dependent child who is a citizen of, and resident in, an EEA member state or Switzerland and has a stamp 4 visa.

Application & Selection

Before you proceed

Before proceeding with this phase of the selection process you should satisfy yourself that you meet the education & experience criteria for the post as set out in this booklet.

Communications

Conscia will contact you when necessary, at each stage of the competition by email. You should only submit one email address for all correspondence in relation to this competition.

It is important to note that the email address you provide when applying must be one that you can access at all times. The onus is on the applicant to inform Human Resources of any change in email address throughout the recruitment and selection campaign. This can be done by emailing ipa@consciatalent.com. The onus is also on each applicant to ensure that they are in receipt of all communication from the Institute. The Institute does not accept responsibility for communications not accessed or received by an applicant.

How to apply

Conscia will be managing all aspects of the recruitment process on behalf of Institute of Public Administration. All information on the role can be found at <https://www.consciatalent.com/ipa>

On this page, you can click on the relevant job title and download the Candidate Booklet and Application Form. You can also submit your completed Application Form by clicking "Apply for Job".

Applications must be made by completing an application form. Please note that CV's should not be submitted.

When completing your application, accuracy is essential. The information you supply in your application will play a central part of the selection process. Only applications fully submitted online will be accepted into the campaign.

If you do not receive an acknowledgement of receipt of your application within 24 hours of applying, please email: ipa@consciatalent.com

You are advised to check your email on a regular basis as email notifications of updates/ tests/ Interviews etc issued to your address may sometimes be filtered into your Junk/ Spam email folders. You are also advised to check all these folders regularly.

The onus is on each applicant to ensure that they are in receipt of all communication from Conscia Limited. Conscia Limited accept no responsibility for communication not accessed or received by an applicant.

Selection Process

The Selection Process may include the following:

- Short-listing of candidates on the basis of the information contained in their application;
- Competitive interview;
- Work sample/role play/media exercise, and any other tests or exercises that may be deemed appropriate.

Please note that the Institute reserves the right to hold any part of the selection process by way of remote/video-call platform or other appropriate methodology.

Shortlisting

The Institute reserves the right to shortlist applications. The shortlisting process may take the form of either a desktop shortlisting process based on the information contained in the applications submitted or a shortlisting interview.

Where, by reason of the number of persons seeking admission to the competition and the standard of knowledge, training or experience in general of such persons, the Institute considers that it would be reasonable not to admit all the persons to the competition, the Institute may admit to the competition only persons who appear likely to it to attain in the competition a standard sufficient for selection and recommendation for appointment.

The information you supply in your application will play a central part in the shortlisting process. The Institute's decision to include you on the shortlist of candidates going forward to the next stage of the process may be determined based on this information.

Interview

You will be contacted in relation to any interview dates and times. You may also be contacted in relation to the requirement to complete an on-line questionnaire should this be included in the selection process. The onus is on you to attend for interview on the dates and times allocated. Alternative dates and times cannot be facilitated. When attending for interview you are requested to bring photographic identification.

The interview is your opportunity to give evidence of your knowledge, skills and experience and the Institute's opportunity to assess your suitability for the role as advertised.

The admission of a person to a competition, or invitation to attend an interview, is not to be taken as implying that the Institute is satisfied that such person fulfils the requirements of the role or is not disqualified by law from holding the position and does not carry a guarantee that your application will receive further consideration. It is important therefore for you to note, the onus is on you to ensure that you meet the eligibility requirements for the competition before attending for interview.

The Institute may at its discretion require candidates to attend a preliminary interview in which case admission to the competitive interview would be conditional on candidates reaching such a standard as the Institute considers appropriate in the preliminary interview.

Interviews shall be conducted by Board(s) set up by the Institute. The Board(s) will assess the merits of candidates (except insofar as they are assessed otherwise) in respect of matters referred to in the prescribed qualifications and any other relevant matters. Only candidates who reach such a standard as the Institute considers satisfactory in the competitive interview shall be considered for selection and placed on a panel. The onus is on all applicants to make themselves available for interview.

The Institute reserves the right to vary the number and sequence of each stage of the selection process as the competition progresses

Panels

A panel may be formed on the basis of the outcomes of the selection process. Placement on any panel from this competition is no guarantee that a position will be offered. The selection process will not be concluded until such time as references have been sought and clearance checks, i.e., occupational health, and verification of education qualifications, have been carried out.

Offer of Appointment

The Institute shall require persons to whom an appointment is offered to take up such appointment within a period of not more than one month, or as agreed. If they fail to take up the appointment within such period, or such longer period as the Institute in its absolute discretion may determine, the Institute may not appoint them.

Probationary Period

All new employees are required to satisfactorily complete a probationary period, in accordance with the 'Terms and Conditions of Employment' in their employment contract. Employees will be required to serve an initial probationary period. During this period, the employee's performance on the job and potential abilities are evaluated to determine suitability for the position. At the end of this probationary period, a formal assessment will be carried out by the employee's line manager, resulting in a decision on whether the employee has completed their probation satisfactorily.

Deeming of candidature to be withdrawn

Candidates who do not complete and submit any assessments before the specified date or do not attend/undertake any stage of the selection process as requested or do not furnish such evidence as requested in regard to any matter relevant to their candidature, will have no further claim to consideration.

Data Protection

The General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) came into force on the 25th May 2018, replacing the existing data protection framework under the EU Data Protection Directive. The personal information (data) collected on the application form, including any attachments, (which may include the collection of sensitive personal data) is collected for the purpose of processing this application and any data collected is subject to the regulations.

Candidates should note that canvassing will disqualify.

The Institute will not be responsible for refunding any expenses incurred by candidates.

The Institute is committed to a policy of equal opportunity.
