About the IPA

The Organisation

Our Purpose

The Institute of Public Administration exists to support a capable, confident and effective Public Service in Ireland. Our purpose is to strengthen the capability and leadership required to meet complex demands, make sound decisions and contribute to better public services for the people of Ireland. We do this through learning and leadership development that is evidence-based, practice-led and focused on application at a whole-of-government level.

As a trusted, government-supported institution, we provide an open and inclusive space for learning, reflection and exchange across the Public Service. We bring people together across organisational and sectoral boundaries to strengthen shared understanding, professional standards and continuous improvement.

We support a Public Service that can adapt to change, work collaboratively across the system and translate policy intent into effective delivery and public value.

Find out more about the IPA at: www.ipa.ie.

Our Role in Supporting the Public Service

We play a fundamental role within Ireland's Public Service as a trusted, independent learning partner in capability and leadership development grounded in specialist knowledge and expertise. Our role is founded on long-standing academic credibility, professional expertise and a deep understanding of how public services are designed, governed and delivered in Ireland. This reflects our leadership in shaping future public-service capability development.

We engage with public servants at all stages of their careers, from early career professionals to senior leaders, across a wide range of functions and policy domains. We help build shared standards, common understanding and consistent approaches to public service challenges, while recognising the diversity of organisational contexts and responsibilities.

We bring learning into the realities of public service work. Our role is to shape learning that is credible and grounded in practice, from accredited learning to professional expertise and skills development.

Independence is central to our role. We provide a space for learning and dialogue across the Public Service, enabling open discussion and informed challenge. We do this by connecting evidence, policy intent and delivery experience in ways that strengthen collective capability.

We work closely with public service sponsors and partners who invest in learning and development. These relationships are based on trust, professionalism and a shared commitment to public value, supporting capability development that is sustained, applied and relevant to real delivery challenges.

Job Description

Grade: Grade 2

Reports to: Director of Digital Learning

About the role: The Institute of Public Administration (IPA) is seeking an experienced and strategic Operations Delivery Manager to lead the operational delivery of Digital Learning services and support the next phase of growth across the public service.

This role is being recruited at a pivotal stage in the evolution of the Digital Learning function. A key pillar of the IPA's strategy is the development of a shared Digital Learning Ecosystem that enables high-quality learning to operate effectively at scale across Ireland's Public Service. The introduction of a new Learning Experience Platform (LXP) in 2027 will provide the foundation for this growth, supporting the expansion of Digital Learning services from approximately 50,000 Civil Service learners to a wider Public Service audience of more than 110,000 learners by 2030. The postholder will play a leading role in implementing the new Digital Learning operating model, supporting the rollout of the Learning Experience Platform and establishing the operational structures, processes and supplier arrangements required to support future growth.

The postholder will lead the operations function, managing the Service Delivery Supervisor and wider operations team to ensure the effective delivery, continuous improvement and future scalability of Digital Learning services, comprising instructor-led delivery and self-paced learning. While initially reporting to the Director of Digital Learning, the department may evolve over time to support operational leadership across the IPA as organisational structures and service models develop.

Key Responsibilities

1. Service Performance & Delivery

- Lead the Digital Learning Operations function, ensuring services are delivered efficiently, effectively and in line with agreed service standards.
- Oversee demand forecasting, capacity planning and operational planning activities to ensure service capacity and delivery models support current and future organisational needs.
- Establish and maintain the operational frameworks, performance measures and service standards required to support effective, scalable and high-quality service delivery.
- Monitor service performance, quality and operational risks, using data, stakeholder feedback and performance insights to drive continuous improvement and corrective action where required

Supplier & Commercial Management

- Define operational requirements, service standards, implementation requirements and performance measures for delivery partners, and support procurement and supplier selection activities.
- Lead the mobilisation and implementation of new delivery partnerships, ensuring services transition smoothly into operation.
- Build effective supplier partnerships and governance arrangements that drive high performance, continuous improvement and value for money.
- Monitor supplier performance against contractual obligations and agreed service standards, ensuring issues are addressed and performance improvements delivered.
- Monitor service utilisation, income and expenditure against operational and contractual targets, providing analysis, forecasting and recommendations to support effective service planning and financial performance.

Stakeholder Management

- Develop and maintain effective relationships with client organisations, ensuring a high-quality, responsive service that meets agreed expectations and supports positive customer experiences.
- Act as a senior escalation point for operational and service delivery matters, working with stakeholders, suppliers and internal teams to resolve issues and maintain service performance.
- Build productive partnerships with internal colleagues, training providers and public service organisations to support the effective delivery and continuous improvement of Digital Learning services.
- Support client onboarding and service transition activities, ensuring new organisations can successfully access and adopt Digital Learning services.

Leadership and Team Management

- Lead and develop the Operations function, ensuring it has the capability, capacity and culture required to deliver high-quality services and support future organisational growth.
- Foster a culture of collaboration, accountability, continuous improvement and innovation, leading teams through change and organisational transformation.

- A non-EEA citizen who is a parent of a dependent child who is a citizen of, and resident in, an EEA member state or Switzerland and has a stamp 4 visa.

Application & Selection

Before you proceed

Before proceeding with this phase of the selection process you should satisfy yourself that you meet the education & experience criteria for the post as set out in this booklet.

Communications

Conscia will contact you when necessary, at each stage of the competition by email. You should only submit one email address for all correspondence in relation to this competition.

It is important to note that the email address you provide when applying must be one that you can access at all times. The onus is on the applicant to inform Human Resources of any change in email address throughout the recruitment and selection campaign. This can be done by emailing ipa@consciatalent.com. The onus is also on each applicant to ensure that they are in receipt of all communication from the Institute. The Institute does not accept responsibility for communications not accessed or received by an applicant.

How to apply

Conscia will be managing all aspects of the recruitment process on behalf of Institute of Public Administration. All information on the role can be found at <https://www.consciatalent.com/ipa>

On this page, you can click on the relevant job title and download the Candidate Booklet and Application Form. You can also submit your completed Application Form by clicking "Apply for Job".

Applications must be made by completing an application form. Please note that CV's should not be submitted.

Selection Process

The Selection Process may include the following:

- Short-listing of candidates on the basis of the information contained in their application;
- Competitive interview;
- Work sample/role play/media exercise, and any other tests or exercises that may be deemed appropriate.

Please note that the Institute reserves the right to hold any part of the selection process by way of remote/video-call platform or other appropriate methodology.

Shortlisting

The Institute reserves the right to shortlist applications. The shortlisting process may take the form of either a desktop shortlisting process based on the information contained in the applications submitted or a shortlisting interview.

Where, by reason of the number of persons seeking admission to the competition and the standard of knowledge, training or experience in general of such persons, the Institute considers that it would be reasonable not to admit all the persons to the competition, the Institute may admit to the competition only persons who appear likely to it to attain in the competition a standard sufficient for selection and recommendation for appointment.

The information you supply in your application will play a central part in the shortlisting process. The Institute's decision to include you on the shortlist of candidates going forward to the next stage of the process may be determined based on this information.

Interview

Interviews are envisaged to take place in October 2026. You may also be contacted in relation to the requirement to complete an on-line questionnaire should this be included in the selection process. The onus is on you to attend for interview on the dates and times allocated. Alternative dates and times cannot be facilitated. When attending for interview you are requested to bring photographic identification.

The interview is your opportunity to give evidence of your knowledge, skills and experience and the Institute's opportunity to assess your suitability for the role as advertised.

The admission of a person to a competition, or invitation to attend an interview, is not to be taken as implying that the Institute is satisfied that such person fulfils the requirements of the role or is not disqualified by law from holding the position and does not carry a guarantee that your application will receive further consideration. It is important therefore for you to note, the onus is on you to ensure that you meet the eligibility requirements for the competition before attending for interview.

The Institute may at its discretion require candidates to attend a preliminary interview in which case admission to the competitive interview would be conditional on candidates reaching such a standard as the Institute considers appropriate in the preliminary interview.

Interviews shall be conducted by Board(s) set up by the Institute. The Board(s) will assess the merits of candidates (except insofar as they are assessed otherwise) in respect of matters referred to in the prescribed qualifications and any other relevant matters. Only candidates who reach such a standard as the Institute considers satisfactory in the competitive interview shall be considered for selection and placed on a panel. The onus is on all applicants to make themselves available for interview.

The Institute reserves the right to vary the number and sequence of each stage of the selection process as the competition progresses

Panels

A panel may be formed on the basis of the outcomes of the selection process. Candidates who are deemed appointable for the role may be approached should subsequent vacancies arise within 12 months of the interview date. Placement on any panel from this competition is no guarantee that a position will be offered. The selection process will not be concluded until such time as references have been sought and clearance checks, i.e., occupational health, and verification of education qualifications, have been carried out.

Offer of Appointment

The Institute shall require persons to whom an appointment is offered to take up such appointment within a period of not more than one month, or as agreed. If they fail to take up the appointment within such period, or such longer period as the Institute in its absolute discretion may determine, the Institute may not appoint them.

Probationary Period

All new employees are required to satisfactorily complete a probationary period, in accordance with the 'Terms and Conditions of Employment' in their employment contract. Employees will be required to serve an initial probationary period. During this period, the employee's performance on the job and potential abilities are evaluated to determine suitability for the position. At the end of this probationary period, a formal assessment will be carried out by the employee's line manager, resulting in a decision on whether the employee has completed their probation satisfactorily.

Deeming of candidature to be withdrawn

Candidates who do not complete and submit any assessments before the specified date or do not attend/undertake any stage of the selection process as requested or do not furnish such evidence as requested in regard to any matter relevant to their candidature, will have no further claim to consideration.

Data Protection

The General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) came into force on the 25th May 2018, replacing the existing data protection framework under the EU Data Protection Directive. The personal information (data) collected on the application form, including any attachments, (which may include the collection of sensitive personal data) is collected for the purpose of processing this application and any data collected is subject to the regulations.

Candidates should note that canvassing will disqualify.

The Institute will not be responsible for refunding any expenses incurred by candidates.

The Institute is committed to a policy of equal opportunity.
